You should read this notice, so that you know what we are doing with your personal data . Please also read any other privacy notices that we give you, that might apply to our use of your personal data in specific circumstances in the future.

This notice does not form part of your contract of employment or any other contract to provide services.

2. Flexsys' data protection responsibilities

"Personal data" is any information that relates to an identifiable natural person. Your name, address, contact details, salary details and CV are all examples of your personal data, if they identify you.

The term "process" means any activity relating to personal data, including, by way of example, collection, storage, use, consultation and transmission.

Flexsys is a "controller" of your personal data. This means that we make decisions about how and why we process your personal data and, because of this, we are responsible for making sure it is used in accordance with data protection laws.

3. What types of personal data do we collect and where do we get it from?

We collect many different types of personal data about you for lots of reasons. We cannot administer our employment or other relationship with you without your personal data. Where we don't need your personal data, we will make this clear, for instance we will explain if any employment forms you are required to complete are optional and can be left blank.

Further details of the personal data we collect, where we get it from and what we do with it are set out in Schedule 1.

You provide us with personal data when you apply for a job with us, when you complete our employee information forms, correspond with us and in the course of performing your job. We also obtain some personal data from other sources, and create some personal data ourselves.

As set out in the table at Schedule 1, we collect your personal information from you directly and sometimes we obtain it from other people and organizations, including some public sources, such as publicly available directories and online resources, your emergency contacts, your use of Flexsys-provided assets, systems and platforms, your line manager and co-workers, your dependants and beneficiaries, and third-party benefits providers.

Due to the type of business undertaken by Flexsys, we also conduct background checks on our employees as permitted by local law. Depending on the job role, these checks can relate to any criminal convictions that you may have and include those checks that are required by mandatory applicable law and those required for our own policy compliance. Please see also the section below in relation to 'Sensitive Information'.

If any of the personal information you have given to us changes, such as your contact details, please contact a local Human Resource representative.

4. What do we do with your personal data and why?

We process your personal data for particular purposes in connection with your employment or engagement with us, and the management and administration of our business.

We are required by law to always have a so-called "lawful basis" (i.e. a reason or justification) for processing your personal data. The table at Schedule 2 sets out the different purposes for which we process your personal data and the relevant lawful basis on which we rely for that processing. In the event we intend to further process your personal data for a purpose other than that for which the personal data were collected, we will provide you with additional information on that further processing prior to that further processing.

We have a fiduciary duty and are obliged to protect our assets and employees. To accomplish this, we may use various monitoring techniques based upon several factors:

- (a) Your access to sensitive or privileged Company information;
- (b) You are under reasonable suspicion of a crime or violation of our Code of Business Conduct; or
- (c) Changes in your employment status that would justify and warrant processing (e.g. departing Flexsys); or
- (d) You have an approved IT security exception (like a USB exception).

Monitoring may include the evaluation of network traffic on Flexsys networks and the recording of screen activity on Flexsys administrated devices, as permitted by local law. Screen recording includes the creation of a video of all activity performed by a user on a Flexsys device. This may include web browsing activity, file creation and editing, email communication, and chat interactions. Video evidence is evaluated based upon alert conditions. For example, if a user plugs in a USB device, an alert is triggered, and the video is examined. All review activity of video evidence is itself recorded to prevent misuse. Videos are purged from the system in accordance to the data retention policy. Web cameras and video of the user themselves is not recorded.

Furthermore, our network activity is constantly being logged and evaluated to prevent malware and cyber security incidents.

Please note that where we have indicated in the table at Schedule 2 that our processing of your personal data is either:

- (a) necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation; or
- (b) necessary for us to take steps, at your request, to potentially enter into an employment contract with you, or to perform it, if you choose not to provide the relevant personal data to us, we may not be able to enter into or continue our contract of employment or engagement with you.

We may also convert your personal data into statistical or aggregated form to better protect your privacy, or so that you are not identified or identifiable from it. We may use it to conduct research and analysis, including to produce statistical research and reports. For example, to help us understand how many of our total workforce number are on secondments at any given time.

5. Sensitive Information

Some of the processing described in the table at Schedule 2 will include the processing of 'special categories of personal data' and/or sensitive personal data (together, "Sensitive Information"). This refers to sensitive or special categories of personal data for which applicable laws require us to process with more care.

The table at Schedule 3 sets out the different purposes for which we process your Sensitive Information and the relevant lawful basis on which we rely for that processing. For some processing activities, we consider that more than one lawful basis may be relevant - depending on the circumstances.

6. Who do we share your personal data with, and why?

Sometimes we need to disclose your personal data to other people.

Inside Flexsys' Group:

We are part of the Flexsys group, which includes a number of companies and operations globally. Therefore, we will need to share your personal data with other companies in the Flexsys group for our general business and workforce management and human resources management purposes and, in some cases, to meet our customer needs where working across offices/locations, for line management, authorizations/approvals with relevant decision makers, reporting and where systems and services are provided on a shared basis. For example, your business contact details will be available to colleagues throughout the group.

Access rights between members of the Flexsys group are limited and granted only on a need to know basis, depending on job functions and roles.

Where any Flexsys group companies process your personal data on our behalf (as our processor), we will make sure that they have appropriate security standards in place to make sure your personal data is protected and we will enter into a written contract imposing appropriate security standards on them.

Outside Flexsys Group:

From time to time we may ask third parties to carry out certain business functions for us, such as the administration of our payroll, HR support and our IT support. These third parties will process your personal data on our behalf (as our processor). We will disclose your personal data to these parties so that they can perform those functions. Before we disclose your personal data to these third parties, we will seek to ensure that they have appropriate security standards in place to protect your personal data and we will enter into a written contract imposing appropriate security standards on them. Examples of these third-party service providers include service providers and/or sub-contractors, include our outsourced payroll, HR and marketing service providers, and our IT systems software and maintenance, back up, and server hosting providers.

In certain circumstances, we will also disclose your personal data to third parties who will receive it as controllers of your personal data in their own right for the purposes set out above, where the relevant disclosure is:

- (a) if we buy or sell our business (or part of it) in connection with a share or asset sale, we may disclose or transfer your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer and their advisors; and
- (b) if we need to disclose your personal data in order to comply with a legal obligation, to enforce a contract or to protect the rights, property or safety of our employees, customers or others.

We have set out below a list of the categories of recipients with whom we are likely to share your personal data:

- (i) employment-related benefits providers and other third parties in connection with your benefits (such as pension trustees);
- (ii) human resource-related service providers (such as Human Resource Information System providers);
- (iii) customers or clients of Flexsys (for example, when tendering for work);
- (iv) consultants and professional advisors including legal advisors and accountants;
- (v) courts, court-appointed persons/entities, receivers and liquidators;
- (vi) business partners and joint ventures;

- (vii) trade associations and professional bodies;
- (viii) insurers; and
- (ix) governmental departments, statutory and regulatory bodies.

7. Where in the world is your personal data transferred to?

As part of a global organization, Flexsys may transfer your personal data to recipients (either internally or externally, as set out above) that are established in jurisdictions other than your own, including outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). Please be aware that the data protection laws in some jurisdictions may not provide the same level of protection to your personal data as is provided to it under the laws in your jurisdiction.

If any disclosures of personal data referred to above require your personal data to be transferred, we will only make that transfer if:

- (a) the country to which the personal data is to be transferred ensures an adequate level of protection for personal data (for example, if available, on the basis of a so-called adequacy decision by the European Commission);
- (b) we have put in place appropriate safeguards to protect your personal data, such as an appropriate contract with the recipient (including the Standard Contractual Clauses published by the European Commission, as applicable);
- (c) the transfer is necessary for one of the reasons specified in data protection legislation, such as the performance of a contract between us and you; or
- (d) you explicitly consent to the transfer.

For more information on our personal data transfer mechanisms, including obtaining a copy of the appropriate safeguards we rely on, please contact the Privacy Office at privacy@flexsys.com.

8. How do we keep your personal data secure?

We will take specific steps (as required by applicable data protection laws) to ensure we take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data from unlawful or unauthorised processing and accidental loss, destruction or damage.

9. How long do we keep your personal data for?

If you are our employee we will keep your personal data during the period of your employment and then, after your employment with us ends, for as long as is necessary in connection with both our and your legal rights and obligations. This may mean that we keep some types of personal data for longer than others.

We will only retain your personal data for a limited period of time. This will depend on a number of factors, including:

- (a) any laws or regulations that we are required to follow;
- (b) whether we are in a legal or other type of dispute with each other or any third party;
- (c) the type of information that we hold about you; and
- (d) whether we are asked by you or a regulatory authority to keep your personal data for a valid reason.

Any personal data contained in any work-related correspondence or records may be retained for longer, dependant on the retention period of the file that your personal data is held on.

For more information on our data retention practices, please refer to the Flexsys Records Management Policy.

10. What are your rights in relation to your personal data and how can you exercise them?

You have certain rights, which are briefly summarised at Schedule 4, in relation to any personal data about you which we hold.

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent (please see Schedules 2 and 3), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. If you do decide to withdraw your consent we will stop processing your personal data for that purpose, unless there is another lawful basis we can rely on - in which case, we will let you know. Your withdrawal of your consent won't impact any of our processing up to that point.

Where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests (please see Schedule 2), you can object to this processing at any time. If you do this, we will need to show either a compelling reason why our processing should continue, which legitimately overrides your interests, rights and freedoms or that the processing is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.

If you wish to further understand or exercise any of these rights, please contact a local Human Resource representative or the Privacy Office at privacy@flexsys.com.

11. Updates to this notice

We may update this notice from time to time to reflect changes to the type of personal data that we process and/or the way in which it is processed. We encourage you to check this notice on a regular basis.

12. Where can you find out more?

If you want more information about any of the subjects covered in this privacy notice or if you would like to discuss any issues or concerns with us, please contact a local Human Resource representative or the Privacy Office at privacy@flexsys.com.

SCHEDULE 4

YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL DATA

Our employees working in our Turkish subsidiaries will have the rights set forth under Article 11 of the Turkish Personal Data Protection Law.

If any of the personal information you have given to us changes, such as your contact details, please contact a local Human Resource representative.

Your right	What does it mean?	Limitations and conditions of your right
Right of access	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to have access to your personal data (this is more commonly known as submitting a " data subject access request ").	If possible, you should specify the type of information you would like to see to ensure that our disclosure is meeting your expectations. We must be able to verify your identity. Your request may not impact the rights and freedoms of other people, e.g. privacy and confidentiality rights of other staff.
Right to data portability	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to receive the personal data which you have provided to us and which is processed by us by automated means, in a structured, commonly-used machine readable format.	If you exercise this right, you should specify the type of information you would like to receive (and where we should send it) where possible to ensure that our disclosure is meeting your expectations. This right only applies if the processing is based on your consent or on our contract with you and when the processing is carried out by automated means (i.e. not for paper records). It covers only the personal data that has been provided to us by you.
Rights in relation to inaccurate personal or incomplete data	You may challenge the accuracy or completeness of your personal data and have it corrected or completed, as applicable. You have a responsibility to help us to keep your personal information accurate and up to date. We encourage you to notify us of any changes regarding your personal data as soon as they occur, including changes to your contact details, telephone number, immigration status.	Please always check first whether there are any available self-help tools to correct the personal data we process about you. This right only applies to your own personal data. When exercising this right, please be as specific as possible.
Right to object to or restrict our data processing	Subject to certain conditions, you have the right to object to or ask us to restrict the processing of your personal data.	As stated above, this right applies where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests. You can also object to our processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes.
Right to erasure	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to have your personal data erased (also known as the " right to be forgotten "), e.g. where your personal data is no longer needed for the purposes it was collected for, or where the relevant processing is unlawful.	We may not be in a position to erase your personal data, if for example, we need it to (i) comply with a legal obligation, or (ii) exercise or defend legal claims.
Right to withdrawal of consent	As stated above, where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.	If you withdraw your consent, this will only take effect for future processing.

Right to lodge complaints	You have the right to lodge complaints with how we process your personal data with us and/or with the relevant data protection authority in your jurisdiction.	If you wish to make a complaint about how we process your personal data, please contact the Privacy Office at privacy@flexsys.com . This is without prejudice to your right to lodge a complaint with the relevant data protection authority.
